

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

KEENAM PARK,
Defendant

Crim. No. 1:20-cr-10128-MLW

DEFENDANT’S OPPOSITION TO GOVERNMENT’S MOTION TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE

NOW COMES, Keenam Park (hereinafter “Mr. Park”), through undersigned counsel and respectfully requests that this Honorable Court deny the Government’s Motion to Modify Conditions of Pre-Trial Release. See Dkt. 40.

BACKGROUND

After departing Harvard Dental School as a young adult, having chosen not to complete a degree in that field, Mr. Park led a successful career as a self-employed businessman, while also being a good husband and father. With no prior involvement in the criminal justice system, he has now accepted responsibility in the present case, has executed a plea agreement and is prepared for a Rule 11 Hearing on August 10, 2020.

Since the onset of this case, Mr. Park's singular focus has been the desire to begin to pay back applicable restitution and to be able to financially support his family during the pendency of this case. Given his age, current pre-trial release condition of a curfew and being affixed with a GPS bracelet, it has been challenging for Mr. Park to obtain a 9~5 job, but building upon his background as an entrepreneur, and working solely with the support of relatives and close friends, Mr. Park has recently started a company, Pelican Pouch, www.pelicanpouch.net, a marketing platform specializing in introducing family-owned restaurants and food delivery services to the distribution of Personal Protective Equipment (“PPE”). See Exhibit A.

During the last 6 months, against the landscape of the global pandemic and seeing an opportunity to engage in a positive, socially conscious business, Mr. Park has educated himself on e-Commerce and the manufacturing, production and distribution of PPE. He has explored various business partners in Massachusetts who have expressed an interest in buying and distributing PPE equipment, such as Toast Tab and UberEATS, both food delivery platforms.

Mr. Park has also become affiliated with another company (started by his nephew), North Star, Inc., duly organized in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, having the principal purpose of manufacturing PPE. See Exhibit B. Mr. Park states that he and his nephew are currently attempting to secure raw materials, as well as two N95-mask manufacturing machines, and anticipate signing a commercial lease securing a factory location in Lowell, Massachusetts. As a minority business owner in the HUB zone, Mr. Park is hopeful to make North Star a priority in securing manufacturing contracts with large-scale brands such as 3M.

Separately, in an effort to not let any of his personal time go to waste, Mr. Park has also secured employment at Boston Korea at an hourly wage. See Exhibit C.

Mr. Park further states that any relatives and close friends who have expressed an interest to work with Pelican Pouch and North Star, Inc. are familiar with his current legal situation as Mr. Park has been fully transparent with them during the discussions of the ideas for these businesses. Mr. Park has not solicited public investors by advertising Private Placement Memoranda, investment brochures or other business/corporate instruments relating to the general public solicitation of outside investment funds.

Having never vacillated from his position to start paying back applicable restitution as soon as possible, Mr. Park assures this Court that any and all business-related conversations he has had have only been with close friends and relatives. Mr. Park has learned greatly from this present case, and a final aside, he is open to any further condition to be set by this Court that would require him to make real-time disclosures of all business-related developments to PO Marlenny Ramdehal to ensure his continued compliance with all terms and conditions of release.

WHEREFORE, Mr. Park respectfully requests this Motion be allowed.

Respectfully Submitted:

KEENAM PARK
